REPAYMENT CLAUSE

Unless otherwise specified in your HPE offer letter, or in writing by your manager, if you do not relocate by the start or transfer date noted above, or in the event you do relocate but subsequently terminate your employment with HPE voluntarily or involuntarily due to misconduct or performance issues, during the term of your internship, you will: (a) forfeit eligibility for any relocation benefits; (b) not be eligible for any relocation allowance; and (c) be required to repay Hewlett Packard Enterprise the gross amount of any relocation benefits paid to you directly and/or on your behalf (including any tax assistance, as applicable).

You must inform Hewlett Packard Enterprise's designated Relocation Supplier immediately if you terminate from Hewlett Packard Enterprise prior to completing your internship.

Repayment is expected to occur as soon as possible, and prior to your termination date or the date it is determined that you will not relocate. In no event, shall any such repayment be later than 30 days after your termination date, or the date it is determined that you will not relocate. Any pending relocation activities will cease as of the date that either Hewlett Packard Enterprise's Global Employee Mobility team or Relocation Supplier is notified of either the termination of employment, or failure to relocate on the agreed-upon date, as applicable.

Hewlett Packard Enterprise will waive repayment if you are impacted by Sarbanes-Oxley or terminated as a result of any Hewlett Packard Enterprise initiated curtailment of activities within its operation that significantly diminishes your ability to work for reasons unrelated to your individual work performance.

OTHER

You will have up to the end of your internship to use all relocation provisions you have been offered. Provisions that are, by their nature, intended to extend beyond the transfer date will continue. Any other provisions not used within this timeframe will expire at the end of your internship. Some provisions specify expiry times earlier than end of your internship and these deadlines must be met or the provision becomes unavailable. Provisions of a similar monetary value, or cash equivalent, are not to be substituted for a provision that is not used, or only partially used. There is no compensation for any unused provision, partially used provision, or provision that was not executed within its stated deadline.

The provisions and procedures outlined herein are in accordance with the Intern Relocation Program (IRP), in effect as of March 1, 2023 and as amended from time to time.

EMPLOYEE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

By my signature below, I acknowledge and agree to adhere to the terms and conditions of the Intern Relocation Program, including but not limited to the specific terms and conditions outlined in this Summary. I further understand and acknowledge that I will be required to repay to Hewlett Packard Enterprise the full cost of any transfer-related expenses including tax assistance, that I received or that were made on my behalf, if I do not relocate by my agreed upon start date, or if my employment with Hewlett Packard Enterprise ends due to voluntary termination, or termination due to misconduct or performance issues, during the term of my internship.

I also acknowledge that only I, and my approved accompanying dependents, will be considered for any associated health, household goods, personal travel or other insurance covers. Dependent eligibility is ultimately subject to the terms and conditions of the respective plans and local legislation and is subject to change without notice. To the full extent legally possible, Hewlett Packard Enterprise assumes no responsibility for any loss or hardship (be it loss of life, property, bodily injury, money, time or other) incurred directly or indirectly by non-eligible persons.
